Sunday Westchester Farmers' Market

Don't Miss the Anniversary of Westchester's Incredible Farmers' Market

Join us for Sunday Westchester Farmers' Market's third anniversary in Westchester's beautiful downtown triangle on 87th Street, Sunday July 21 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

This year will be a celebration of health, wellness, and community with all your favorite farmers, vendors, and community groups. Expect an abundance of summer crops, specials throughout the market, a vintage car show, pie baking and tasting contest, beer and mimosa garden, live music, kids activities with Councilmember Mike Bonin hosting office hours.

The market is open every week rain or shine, and offers a range and the best of California grown farm-to-your-table fresh fruits, herbs and veggies! The market continues to have a growing number of local farmers, ranchers, specialty growers, food purveyors and artisans.

Certified by the California Agriculture Department, all growers are California-based and sell the products they grow. Additionally, the market's food purveyors are local and family owned. Produce varies with the seasons as do the food purveyors rotating with the trends and availabilities, so enjoy the changes with the seasons from sweet corn, peaches and cherries in the summertime to winter's bounty with persimmons, squash and gorgeous root veggies to browsing the market's nursery during planting season for the very best in vibrant potted flowers and herbs.

Sunday Westchester Farmer's Market is produced by an independent non-profit organization and funded by the Westchester Town Center BID in collaboration with the Westchester Vitalization Corporation. The Stephanie Younger Group Compass Real Estate is a founding community sponsor of this "unique, weekly, hometown Westchester, family event."

Visit the farmers market's social media through their website at: westchesterfarmersmkt.com for updates and sign ups for the pie baking contest!

What Is the Westchester Town Center BID?

The mission of the WTC BID is to: proactively enhance the vitality of the business district, its stakeholders, and the community by providing an inviting environment; streetscape landscaping and beautification; marketing and promotions; new business attraction; and policy advocacy.

It is a property based District formed by a vote of the commercial property owners that assess themselves for its costs of operation. Some 129 properties are included, and it is one of about 45 other business improvement districts in the City of Los Angeles. The WTC BID is managed by a non-profit corporation pursuant to its adopted Management District Plan and contract with the City. Its Board of Directors meets monthly and invites stakeholder participation.

Neighborhood Council Undergoes New Election, New Look

The June 2 election for the Neighborhood Council of Westchester/Playa ushered in a new look for the advisory body that oversees the area.

Longtime President Cyndi Hench, original Neighborhood Council board member Patricia Lyon and several other members elected not to run for re-election, clearing the way for a wave of new members to sit on the board, which serves as the city's chief advisory panel for Westchester, Playa del Rey and Playa Vista.

The BID has had a long and successful partnership with the Neighborhood Council since its inception.

"We want to thank Cyndi, Pat and everyone else who is rolling off the board for their help and partnership as we have worked together to improve our community," said BID Executive Director Don Duckworth. "The new board members will have big shoes to fill, but our community has no shortage of engaged and involved residents, so we know the Neighborhood Council will be in good hands."

Congratulations to the new board members who were recently elected:

Residential District 1:
Michele Cooley-Strickland

Residential District 3:
Zach Siglow

Residential District 5:
Andrew Watkins

Residential District 7:
Sylvia J. Wilson

Residential District 9:
Cord Thomas

Residential District 11:
Dennis Miller

Income Real Property Director:
Paula Gerez

Religious Director:
Sue Fisher

Senior Citizens Director:
Naomi Waka

At Large Directors:
Kimberley Fox
Garrett Smith

The new board will be seated at the Neighborhood Council's August 6 meeting, which will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the Westchester Municipal Building. At that meeting, the board will elect its new officers.
